15. Multidisciplinary / interdisciplinary
Primary goal of autonomy is to enhance the quality education on global standards with diversity for all curriculum and pedagogy with technological innovations in teaching learning process. The Institution identifies and develops the flexible and innovative curriculum by using the autonomy. The institute follows these curriculum and handling the sessions for the students successfully and effectively. The institution is offering interdisciplinary/multidisciplinary courses in both UG and PG programme by using diverse experts of the institution and external members. The multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary courses enhance the knowledge and expertise of the students in different disciplines. The extra disciplinary courses are also conducted for the PG students. In addition, various departments of the institution conduct skill development courses for students.
16. Academic bank of credits (ABC):
Yet to be started as the University needs to provide details and guideline pertaining to the same
17. Skill development:
The identification and enhancement of individual student's skill are the prime task of the faculties and students for their employability and success in their career. The Institution is motivating and encouraging the students to attend and do various skill development programmes and courses are offered by different departments of the institution. The institution conducts general skill development trainings using different Students support services viz., Target C&E (Competitive Examinations), Placement Cell, Entrepreneur Cell, etc. and the departments provide subject specific training. Such trainings boost up the students professional, academic and technical skills and make them ready for industry. The departments have clubs, forums, etc which provide opportunity for the students to experience different sets of skills. The institution has well established Fine Arts Association for the students in which inner talents of the students are brought out. The institution has established hobby clubs like music club, skill development club, and sports club etc., to enhance their skills on the concerned platform. The institute organizes seminars, workshops, personality development programmes for the students to develop personality, democratic, humanistic, ethical values as well.

18.Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

The approach of integrating Indian knowledge system is vital to learn and understand the traditional knowledge. The incorporation of traditional knowledge with modern knowledge and scientific development will certainly sort problems associated with local situation and environment. The developments in agriculture, fisheries, industry in our country with incorporation of traditional knowledge system increases the outcome. The skill based courses cover these areas which are conducted through hybrid mode of using both online and offline teaching. Apart from these courses/curriculum, the institution celebrates different festivals, events, activities etc., on different occasions related to Indian history, patriots, national leaders, etc. associated with these aspects. The institution organizes various competitions for the students and they are awarded with prizes. The students and staff members are encouraged to undertake online courses who also attend courses related to these areas. In addition in the curriculum development various aspects of traditional knowledge system are incorporated in various courses of different programme.

19.Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

Autonomy is intensively used by the institution to design the curriculum by using experts from different walks of life. The composition of internal experts on different areas, subject experts of different discipline, industrialist, alumni, etc., imbibe all the views for bringing required outcome through the higher education.

Many innovative, and skill based courses are included in the curriculum wherever possible which transform the institution towards Outcome Based Education. The institution has adopted good practices towards OBE viz., defining Program Specific Outcomes, Program Course Outcomes, Program Educational Objectives for all the courses offered to the students. The institution follows the Blooms Taxonomy for designing the question paper at institute level. All the students of the institution are assessed based on the OBE Model. The attainment of OBE is analyzed and assessed.

20.Distance education/online education:

The institution conducted the full-time courses, the distance education yet to be started. The institute has the limited facilities related to online education which were very adequate and helpful to cope the effective teaching and learning processes during the COVID -19 pandemic period. The institute has successfully conducted the online classes by using the online platforms like Google meet for the students during the pandemic lockdown when the college was also converted as Corona isolation and treatment centre. The experience of using online platforms and expertise developed during the period made the faculties to deliver the teaching content effectively and on the other hand, the students became effective users of IT gadgets for enhancing the learning processes. The institute encourages the student and faculty to do online courses through NPTEL/SWAYAM/ MOOC. The students are encouraged to do programs related to their subject, skill-oriented offered by the IGNOU. The Enthusiastic Students webinar series by the students for the students is conducted through online on every Saturday from 17.00 to 18.00 hours which enhances their skill, confidence, interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary knowledge, etc. The Department of Visual Communication has a YOUTUBE channel that has a collection of all the events that took place both academic and cultural aspects in the college for students' learning and publicity.

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curriculum Design and Development

1.1.1 - Curricula developed and implemented have relevance to the local, national, regional and global developmental needs which are reflected in Programme Outcomes (POs), Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs) and Course Outcomes (COs) of the various Programmes offered by the Institution.

Based on guidelines of UGC, Parent University and TN State Council for Higher Education (TANSHE) and by considering the essential and developmental needs of society the curriculum was designed with CBCS pattern and OBE. The local, regional, national and global needs are fulfilled based on the suggestions and requirements of employer, public in adopted villages and alumni. Model curriculum of UGC/TNSCHE and Syllabi of UGC/NET/SET/CSIR/Civil Services/TNPSC/Other Competitive Examinations are referred. Course skeleton design takes place once in 3 and 2 years for UG and PG Courses respectively and frame year wise syllabus by conducting Annual Board of Studies meeting. Diversified with new combinations of subjects leading to interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary courses are identified in addition to the fundamental courses for skeleton. Mandatory Interdisciplinary, Language, Elective, Non-major Elective courses are included. Programme Outcomes (POs) Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs) and Course Outcomes (COs) are prepared.

At pre-board meetings, necessary modifications are done in the proposed syllabi, after careful deliberations in BOS (external subject and industrial experts, University Nominee, and Alumni) syllabi are approved. Curriculum structure enhances vertical and horizontal mobility, promote effective problem solving ability, think creatively and inculcate skills that are productive and value based which makes the rural economically weaker students to compete with the privileged sections.

1.3 - Curriculum Enrichment

1.3.1 - Institution integrates cross-cutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability, and Human Values into the curriculum

Majority of the students are of first generation, agricultural based, rural background, socially and economically deprived and female students are getting higher education and get variety of exposure to understand and address today's social and environmental challenges. So, in the curriculum many crosscutting issues including Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values and Environment in UG and PG programme are integrated as specific course or content in different courses. Environmental studies, Gender studies, Human values and ethics and Soft skills are mandatory UG courses. Language courses incorporate these issues. Theory courses are complemented by Part-V activities in association with NSS, NCC, YRC, RRC, Students' EXNORA, Leo club, Junior Jaycee and Retract club, etc., to sensitise the students to a wide range of crosscutting issues. Pongal festival is celebrated to make the students understand their role and importance of agriculture, environment, animals and human, tradition of culture, equality among people, etc.

Additionally, Fine Arts, ICC, Department forums and societies emphasize these issues to students, community and common public. Through different celebrations and International Days issues are portrayed as drama, actions, dance, play, etc., and as talks, debates, competitions (essay, oral, slogan, drawings, rangoli, etc.) to the students. Students understand the issues and learned to address them, which makes them socially responsible.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses students' learning levels and organises special programmes for both slow and advanced learners.

Holistic education is imparted to diverse group viz., slow, advanced learners and visually challenged. After admission, bridge-courses are conducted to develop the foundation and improve learning, communication skill and create interest in the subjects. Differences in performance and learning are assessed by CIA in charge and tutor in-charge of ward. Teaching practice and methods are diversified taking into account of learning styles and preferences. Teachers are counseled to be flexible and focus on ways to address the differences in the student's ability for facilitating their learning. Tutorial system identifies and provides individualized care to both slow and advanced learners. For Slow Learners, remedial/special classes and tests are conducted to clarify doubts and personal difficulties. Language lab, library facilities and peer support and training are extended. Immediate Supplementary Examination provides opportunity to complete the programme without time loss. Scribes are provided to differently abled students. For Advanced Learners, Encourage to do concurrent courses by additional learning resources, participate in seminars/conferences/competitions etc., to do certificate courses/job training/add-on courses to apply funding for projects, to undertake internships and lead Department Associations and Forums activities and write articles and edit the magazine. Placement cell and Target C&E arrange special coaching and career guidance to appear for National/state level competitive exams.

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student-centric methods such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem-solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences:

The adoption of student-centric methods of learning include active, cooperative, project based, experiential, blended and other ICT based to make students relish their learning. Various methods of experiential and participatory learning, as well as problem solving methodologies, are implemented to make sure that students are dynamic participants. Experiential learning is made effective in four stages by applying the mode of watching (observation), sensing, thinking and doing which include Field, Educational and Industrial visits, Laboratory sessions Research projects and surveys, Exhibitions, Stage performances, Participation in competitions, Writing for in-house magazines and newsletters and participation in extension activity. Participative Learning is the best student centric learning method which includes Expert lectures and workshops, Presentations and guided seminars, Group discussions, Peer-learning circles of fast learners assisting slow learners, Guided library work, Seminar, conference, workshop and Video conference, Debates Training by corporate entities and prospective recruiters. Questioning/Quiz method, Role-playing/Drama Software programming, Model making, Online marketing and Intercollegiate fests, and programme like Yoga, Tally, Soft skills, etc., are additionally used. Problem Solving Method is used to enrich student's creativity, decision-making ability, critical thinking, reasoning power and finding solutions using Case-studies Project-based learning, Assignments, Developing problem and solving during Extension Activities in department forums, clubs, and associations.

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT-enabled tools including online resources for effective teaching and learning

ICT enabled learning is provided by including computers with internet usage in their curriculum, with added e-resources. Modern hi-fi audio visual aids viz., IQ board, LCD and CCD camera attached microscopes are used for teaching theory and practicals. Faculties use various ICT enabled tools to enhance the quality of teaching/learning using college high speed Wifi connection. Staff members are trained in effective teaching methods and the use of ICT, AV aids and Computer aided teaching methodologies. Google meet and Google classroom is used intensively for teaching, learning, and evaluation with learning materials of evaluations, assignments, quizzes, lab submissions, etc. Online drawing tools such as concept maps, mind maps, are used to perform student centric activities. PPTs are enabled with animations and simulations to improve the effectiveness of the teaching-learning process. Several open-source software are used to teach Bioinformatics, Biotechnology, Microbiology, Wildlife Biology and other disciplines. Such tools include Databases, Tools and Software by way of an interactive and innovative method of teaching. Several faculties use multimedia and blogs for teaching effectively. Higher degree of embedding ICT in teaching and learning process creates conducive integrated teaching and learning environment that fulfils good pedagogic principles.

2.3.4 - Preparation and adherence to Academic Calendar and Teaching Plans by the institution

Annual Academic Calendar contains key information viz., important notice about autonomy, semester system, CIA, attendance, assignments, tests, seminar, CBCS, credits, passing and grading details, additional information about semester exams and instructions to be followed in examination hall. Day-wise calendar indicates the day order of Time Table, working day number, last date for assignment submission, payment of fees, registration for CIA improvement, and schedule of CIA tests, semester examinations, publication of CIA marks and also mentioning of national and international commemorative days, NCC parade, . Further, festivals, important days of celebrations, holidays and NCC parade are included. Calendar gives space to provide personal information in the beginning and table at the end for the entry of marks and other details for CIA verification and month-wise number of working days. Common time-table is prepared to use optimally all the infrastructure facilities and human resources. Towards the end of every semester, HOD in consultation with the faculty members finalizes the workload for subsequent semester. Based on the workload, time-table is drafted and circulated to faculties. After the approval of Principal, time-table is distributed to faculties. Syllabus to be covered by each faculty is allotted at the beginning of the semester, so preparing teaching plan and methodology well in advance. Portions covered by the staff members are monitored through syllabus coverage report. Before CIA tests the respective syllabus completion is ascertained.

2.5.3 - IT integration and reforms in the examination procedures and processes including Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) have brought in considerable improvement in the Examination Management System (EMS) of the Institution evaluation of development and knowledge of students by teachers. College has a well established COE office equipped with advanced software systems for maintaining students records and data in efficient manner. In addition tracking attendance and CIA tests have been completely automated using homemade software and macros. IT tools are effectively utilized for conducting examinations, evaluation and declaration of results. Seating arrangements and invigilation duties for CIA and ESE (End Semester Examinations) are organized centrally at the college level. Through regular notice board displays of consolidated data are verified. CIA comprised of two centralized tests, three assignments, seminar presentation and attendance for all courses. CIA and ESE system provides opportunities to finish the programme by appearing CIA improvement and supplementary examinations (conducted within 30 days) for benefitting the students. Both the CIA and ESE results are published online in the college website. All the examination procedures are automated. College has been continuously carrying out examination reforms by means of improving examination procedures through integration of Information Technology (IT), Continuous Internal Assessments (CIA) and End Semester Examinations (ESE).

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Programme Outcomes and Course Outcomes for all Programmes offered by the institution are stated and displayed on the website and communicated to teachers and students

Each Programme has specific objectives and over-all design of the course ensures a certain set of skills and competence that the students graduating from the institution should gain at the end of the program. OBE (Outcome-Based Education) is a student centric model through which attain the stated objectives and goals (outcomes). Programme Outcomes (POs): POs are broad statements that incorporate the knowledge, skills and behaviour that the students acquire through a wide range of courses. POs are concerned with the general aspect of graduation for a particular program and the competency and proficiency a graduate will acquire after completion of the program. Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs): PSOs are statements that portray what the graduates of a specific program should be capable to perform. PSOs are developed based on the suggestions of subject experts, alumni, faculty members, industrialists and other stakeholders. Course outcomes (COs): COs point out students' capacity to express in terms of knowledge, skills and values upon completion of a course. COs are more oriented towards subjects. College has clearly framed the learning outcomes of all programs and courses. For that, the IQAC conducted a series of meetings to frame POs, PSOs and COs and soft copies are uploaded on the college website for staff, students and stakeholders' reference. In addition, copies are distributed to faculty members. Students are also communicated the same through the tutorial ward meeting. Programme outcome of UG and PG Programmes are given in the college calendar for wider circulation.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme Outcomes and Course Outcomes as evaluated by the institution

Course outcomes are measured in terms of performances of the students in the Internal (25 Marks) and End Semester Examinations (75 Marks). The following tools are used for calculating CIA marks secured: Assignments (3 Numbers for 20%); Tests (2 Numbers for 60%); Seminar (one for 10%) and Attendance (10% based on attending %).

At the end of each semester, ESEs (End Semester Examinations) are conducted and is declared as PASS in a course. The students should secure a minimum of 40% in UG and 50% in PG inclusive of external and internal assessment. Well framed course outcomes are assessed based on CIA-1, CIA-2, Assignment-I, Assignment-II, Assignment-III, Seminar, Attendance and Marks secured in End Semester Examinations. The 100% of marks are distributed across all the five units for each COs and each mode of assessment is assigned with weightage value. Weightage of Course Outcomes is calculated by using the following formula:

Percentage of COs X Marks X Weightage of COs

The weighted average marks of each COs is calculated by way of fixing threshold range and the analysis is made to know the number of COs attained the desired outcome. The attainment levels are fixed (L1, L2, L3, and L4) based on criteria range (≥ 60 , ≥ 50 to < 60 , ≥ 40 to < 50 and < 40) Course codes are mapped with POs to ascertain the number of COs which are attained the framed POs. PSOs are mapped with POs to get the overall average results and to know their attainment level of PSOs.

RESEARCH, INNOVATIONS AND EXTENSION

3.1 - Promotion of Research and Facilities

3.1.1 - The institution's research facilities are frequently updated and there is a well-defined policy for promotion of research which is uploaded on the institutional website and implemented

Research induces the creativity which is part of the academic activity at higher education in improving the quality of education. College promotes research through: Research and Development Cell (R&D cell): Creates conducive environment for research and take initiatives that promote research aptitude among Faculty members, Research Scholars and PG Students. R&D Cell organizes different research activities and associates with Departments for uplifting innovative research programme. Motivating faculty members to publish their research work in National and International impact factor Journals and present in Conference and Seminar by providing technical. Encouraging and Guiding the Faculty Members to apply external funding to undertake research projects, and organize Seminar /Conference/Workshops/Lecture series, etc. to create awareness and develop the environment and atmosphere, opportunities and facilities for interaction and discussion. For motivating, teachers are awarded in the Teacher's Day for their meritorious contributions, i.e., paper published in International peer reviewed Journal with Clarivate impact factor (above 2.0 for Science faculties above 0.5 for Social Science), Book published with ISBN Number, Obtained external funding for research and associate activities and Faculties who crossed the citation index of more than 250 in Google Scholar. Mandatory public pre-submission presentation of dissertation is adopted to enhance the quality of the research work by all PG students and M.Phil. Scholars. Inviting international and national experts and alumni lectures for promoting research. Signing MOUs are made for enhancing the research potential, collaborative activities, exchanging the expertise, training the students, etc.

3.3 - Innovation Ecosystem

3.3.1 - Institution has created an ecosystem for innovations and creation and transfer of knowledge supported by dedicated centres for research, entrepreneurship, community orientation, incubation, etc.

College promotes innovation, creation and transfer of knowledge by adopting different means including R&D Cell and Entrepreneurship Cell for promoting research and entrepreneurial innovations. Departments have different forums/clubs/associations who organize innovative programmes to nurture talents. Department encourages students to attend various kinds of events and faculties accompany them to perform well. Department: Computer Science conducts different software/hardware competitions and publishes GLOBUS magazine through Swift; Visual Communication organizes Photo-exhibition on International Photography day; English organizes Drama Competition, Literature EXPO and publishes PEKAK PLUMES. Physics organizes Science Day celebrations; Zoology trains the students in vermiculture, apiculture and aquaculture and persuades students to develop entrepreneurial activities and creates awareness through Wildlife Week Celebrations; Botany trains students in mushroom culture and also persuades the agriculture based students to have organic farming; Monoculture plantation of teak and indigenous plants in the 'Mayil Vanam' are used for knowledge transfer. College assigns photo/video works of the college function and preparation of ID cards to students of Visual Communication. After completion of the course some of them started their own studio, printing, and live telecasting business. More than three decades magazine "ILANTHUTHU" has been brought by the students independently with minor support of the college, producing several writers, poets, cine field persons. NSS, NCC, and PEKAK make several knowledge transfers and several government schemes to community. Weekly Enthusiastic Students Webinar series brings out the oratorical talents of students who received awards for their best performances.

3.6 - Extension Activities

3.6.1 - Extension activities carried out in the neighbourhood sensitising students to social issues for their holistic development, and the impact thereof during the year

College has been translating its social commitment through its outreach for People's Development since 5th July 1955. It is a programmed outreach activity for two-way transfer of knowledge between the students and the people of rural communities. Basic premise of this outreach programme is to realise the 'Kattranai thoorum arivu' exercise by which students impart their knowledge and skills for the empowerment of the rural community as a solemn duty of 'paying back to the community'. Extension activities are carried out by various service organizations viz., NSS/NCC/YRC/RRC/Leo club/Rotaract Club/Junior Jaycee and Student EXNORA. All students of our college have the opportunity to be part of any one of the service organizations and get sensitized for recent social issues. Through the extension activities, student volunteers addressed the social issues and thereby make positive impacts on socio, economic and environmental developments of the neighborhood community which creates holistic development. Extension activities are carried out by the enrolled students of respective service organizations with the guidance and support of faculty coordinators.

'PEKAK' the unique campus diversity programme cum village adoption programme provides the opportunity to the young students to involve themselves in service to the society especially in villages. All the first year UG students irrespective of their participation in other service organisations have to take up service activities under the guidance of teaching staff and a village coordinator. Several activities are undertaken in the academic year.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of an effective leadership in tune with the vision and mission of the Institution

VISION As a citadel of higher learning offering quality education to downtrodden people.

MISSION Orienting education to uplift rural youth, Empowering women by enhancing their literacy and employability. Providing opportunities to acquire strong theoretical and practical knowledge to instill a high level of confidence and leadership traits among the students. Inculcating human values, rights, ethics and gender-equity to the learners to perceive responsibilities towards society and nation. Promoting research culture for the sustainable development of the country. Developing a sense of creativity and innovation in all the academic endeavours. Motivating entrepreneurship traits and skills and providing the learners a platform for exploration and enhancement of lifelong learning.

Governance

The prime objective is to produce morally dedicated students by having socially responsible teachers and has a set of well designed guiding philosophy to yield the desired outcomes in students and ultimately in society. Principles are effectively implemented at all levels of management by various decision making bodies viz., Managing Committee, Governing Body, Academic Council, College Council, Board of Studies, Finance Committee, Statutory bodies, etc. that address the academic and non academic issues. Collective participation of all stakeholders is achieved through decentralization of administrative and curricular designing processes. College ensures transparency and accountability.

6.1.2 - Effective leadership is reflected in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management

Participative management: College promotes at different levels viz., strategic level, functional level and operational level. Strategic level: Governing body, Administrator, Principal, Staff Council, IQAC and R&D Cell define policies and procedures, framing guidelines/rules/regulations for academic and administration.

Functional level: Faculty members share knowledge among themselves, students and staff members while working for achieving the tasks and goals. Principal, HoD, Faculty members, Student secretary, Association Office bearers and representatives participate in different roles to yield the fruitful outcome. Operational level: Principal interacts with government/external agencies/faculty members/concerned sections of Parent University. Students and nonteaching staff members join hands with the Principal and faculty for the execution of different academic, administrative, extension related, co and extracurricular activities.

Power Decentralization: Several service organizations are involved to carry out extension activities viz., NSS/NCC/PEKAK/YRC/RRC/EXNORA Internal Complaints Committee/ Consumer Club/Leo Club/Junior Jaycees/Rotaract, etc., Staff members act as coordinators/ advisors and students serve as leaders and volunteers. To carry out the extension work, the college has collaborations with Local bodies/Police department/District administrations/ NGOs/Local administrations/Religious bodies/Government hospital/108 Ambulance service/ Rural community/Public Health Departments/Alumni members/Forest department/Temple administrations for providing the community services to needy people. Decentralization of the power increases the responsibilities and provides opportunity to achieve the task successfully and also prevents the delays.

6.2 - Strategy Development and Deployment

6.2.1 - The institutional Strategic/ Perspective plan has been clearly articulated and implemented

The CPE fund and autonomous grant were effectively used to enhance the IT part of the institution. The enhancement in the Wifi provided an excellent opportunity to conduct online classes during CORONA lockdown period and students learnt as good as offline pedagogy. Whole campus Wifi strength is excelled to provide ICT to all end-users which allow them to access the internet unlimitedly for gathering information. The online pedagogy enhances the conduction of meetings, discussions, presentations, etc., and weekly webinar "Enthusiastic student: Knowledge Resource" series continuously. Further, different departments make use of the online tools for conducting value added courses such as Microbial Food Technology, Fire And Electrical safety, Tally ERP.9 additional classes, etc., The development of e-governance effectively integrated and avail the softwares for administration and research. The college participates continuously in the NIRF and retaining the rank band of 101-150. The single window system with common admission counseling increased to choose multiple courses in an application, effectiveness of students admission and transparency. Although the college was used as COVID isolation treatment ward, the SSR was submitted and peer team visit was conducted successfully due to these IT enhancement and dedicated IQAC team members and NAAC steering committee members.

Part B

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curriculum Design and Development

1.1.1 - Curricula developed and implemented have relevance to the local, national, regional and global developmental needs which are reflected in Programme Outcomes (POs), Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs) and Course Outcomes (COs) of the various Programmes offered by the Institution.

Based on guidelines of UGC, Parent University and TN State Council for Higher Education (TANSHE) and by considering the essential and developmental needs of society the curriculum was designed with CBCS pattern and OBE. The local, regional, national and global needs are fulfilled based on the suggestions and requirements of employer, public in adopted villages and alumni. Model curriculum of UGC/TNSCHE and Syllabi of UGC/NET/SET/CSIR/Civil Services/TNPSC/Other Competitive Examinations are referred. Course skeleton design takes place once in 3 and 2 years for UG and PG Courses respectively and frame year wise syllabus by conducting Annual Board of Studies meeting. Diversified with new combinations of subjects leading to interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary courses are identified in addition to the fundamental courses for skeleton. Mandatory Interdisciplinary, Language, Elective, Non-major Elective courses are included. Programme Outcomes (POs) Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs) and Course Outcomes (COs) are prepared.

At pre-board meetings, necessary modifications are done in the proposed syllabi, after careful deliberations in BOS (external subject and industrial experts, University Nominee, and Alumni) syllabi are approved. Curriculum structure enhances vertical and horizontal mobility, promote effective problem solving ability, think creatively and inculcate skills that are productive and value based which makes the rural economically weaker students to compete with the privileged sections.

1.3 - Curriculum Enrichment

1.3.1 - Institution integrates cross-cutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability, and Human Values into the curriculum

Majority of the students are of first generation, agricultural based, rural background, socially and economically deprived and female students are getting higher education and get variety of exposure to understand and address today's social and environmental challenges. So, in the curriculum many crosscutting issues including Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values and Environment in UG and PG programme are integrated as specific course or content in different courses. Environmental studies, Gender studies, Human values and ethics and Soft skills are mandatory UG courses. Language courses incorporate these issues. Theory courses are complemented by Part-V activities in association with NSS, NCC, YRC, RRC, Students' EXNORA, Leo club, Junior Jaycee and Retract club, etc., to sensitise the students to a wide range of crosscutting issues. Pongal festival is celebrated to make the students understand their role and importance of agriculture, environment, animals and human, tradition of culture, equality among people, etc.

Additionally, Fine Arts, ICC, Department forums and societies emphasize these issues to students, community and common public. Through different celebrations and International Days issues are portrayed as drama, actions, dance, play, etc., and as talks, debates, competitions (essay, oral, slogan, drawings, rangoli, etc.) to the students. Students understand the issues and learned to address them, which makes them socially responsible.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses students' learning levels and organises special programmes for both slow and advanced learners.

Holistic education is imparted to diverse group viz., slow, advanced learners and visually challenged. After admission, bridge-courses are conducted to develop the foundation and improve learning, communication skill and create interest in the subjects. Differences in performance and learning are assessed by CIA in charge and tutor in-charge of ward. Teaching practice and methods are diversified taking into account of learning styles and preferences. Teachers are counseled to be flexible and focus on ways to address the differences in the student's ability for facilitating their learning. Tutorial system identifies and provides individualized care to both slow and advanced learners. For Slow Learners, remedial/special classes and tests are conducted to clarify doubts and personal difficulties. Language lab, library facilities and peer support and training are extended. Immediate Supplementary Examination provides opportunity to complete the programme without time loss. Scribes are provided to differently abled students. For Advanced Learners, Encourage to do concurrent courses by additional learning resources, participate in seminars/conferences/competitions etc., to do certificate courses/job training/add-on courses to apply funding for projects, to undertake internships and lead Department Associations and Forums activities and write articles and edit the magazine. Placement cell and Target C&E arrange special coaching and career guidance to appear for National/state level competitive exams.

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student-centric methods such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem-solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences:

The adoption of student-centric methods of leaning include active, cooperative, project based, experiential, blended and other ICT based to make students relish their learning. Various methods of experiential and participatory learning, as well as problem solving methodologies, are implemented to make sure that students are dynamic participants. Experiential learning is made effective in four stages by applying the mode of watching (observation), sensing, thinking and doing which include Field, Educational and Industrial visits, Laboratory sessions Research projects and surveys, Exhibitions, Stage performances, Participation in competitions, Writing for in-house magazines and newsletters and participation in extension activity. Participative Learning is the best student centric learning method which includes Expert lectures and workshops, Presentations and guided seminars, Group discussions, Peer-learning circles of fast learners assisting slow learners, Guided library work, Seminar, conference, workshop and Video conference, Debates Training by corporate entities and prospective recruiters. Questioning/Quiz method, Role-playing/Drama Software programming, Model making, Online marketing and Intercollegiate fests, and programme like Yoga,Tally, Soft skills,etc.,are additionally used. Problem Solving Method is used to enrich student's creativity, decision-making ability, critical thinking, reasoning power and finding solutions using Case-studies Project-based learning, Assignments,Developing problem and solving during Extension Activities in department forums, clubs, and associations.

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT-enabled tools including online resources for effective teaching and learning

ICT enabled learning is provided by including computers with internet usage in their curriculum, with added e-resources. Modern hi-fi audio visual aids viz., IQ board, LCD and CCD camera attached microscopes are used for teaching theory and practicals. Faculties use various ICT enabled tools to enhance the quality of teaching/learning using college high speed Wifi connection. Staff members are trained in effective teaching methods and the use of ICT, AV aids and Computer aided teaching methodologies. Google meet and Google classroom is used intensively for teaching, learning, and evaluation with learning materials of evaluations, assignments, quizzes, lab submissions, etc. Online drawing tools such as concept maps, mind maps, are used to perform student centric activities. PPTs are enabled with animations and simulations to improve the effectiveness of the teaching-learning process. Several open-source software are used to teach Bioinformatics, Biotechnology, Microbiology, Wildlife Biology and other disciplines. Such tools include Databases, Tools and Software by way of an interactive and innovative method of teaching. Several faculties use multimedia and blogs for teaching effectively. Higher degree of embedding ICT in teaching and learning process creates conducive integrated teaching and learning environment that fulfils good pedagogic principles.

2.3.4 - Preparation and adherence to Academic Calendar and Teaching Plans by the institution

Annual Academic Calendar contains key information viz., important notice about autonomy, semester system, CIA, attendance, assignments, tests, seminar, CBCS, credits, passing and grading details, additional information about semester exams and instructions to be followed in examination hall. Day-wise calendar indicates the day order of Time Table, working day number, last date for assignment submission, payment of fees, registration for CIA improvement, and schedule of CIA tests, semester examinations, publication of CIA marks and also mentioning of national and international commemorative days, NCC parade, . Further, festivals, important days of celebrations, holidays and NCC parade are included. Calendar gives space to provide personal information in the beginning and table at the end for the entry of marks and other details for CIA verification and month-wise number of working days. Common time-table is prepared to use optimally all the infrastructure facilities and human resources. Towards the end of every semester, HOD in consultation with the faculty members finalizes the workload for subsequent semester. Based on the workload, time-table is drafted and circulated to faculties. After the approval of Principal, time-table is distributed to faculties. Syllabus to be covered by each faculty is allotted at the beginning of the semester, so preparing teaching plan and methodology well in advance. Portions covered by the staff members are monitored through syllabus coverage report. Before CIA tests the respective syllabus completion is ascertained.

2.5.3 - IT integration and reforms in the examination procedures and processes including Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) have brought in considerable improvement in the Examination Management System (EMS) of the Institution

College follows Semester system which is convenient, effective, and well-ordered educational system. Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) is a built-in, integral part of the semester pattern for evaluation of development and knowledge of students by teachers. College has a well established COE office equipped with advanced software systems for maintaining students records and data in efficient manner. In addition tracking attendance and CIA tests have been completely automated using homemade software and macros. IT tools are effectively utilized for conducting examinations, evaluation and declaration of results. Seating arrangements and invigilation duties for CIA and ESE (End Semester Examinations) are organized centrally at the college level. Through regular notice board displays of consolidated data are verified. CIA comprised of two centralized tests, three assignments, seminar presentation and attendance for all courses. CIA and ESE system provides opportunities to finish the programme by appearing CIA improvement and supplementary examinations (conducted within 30 days) for benefitting the students. Both the CIA and ESE results are published online in the college website. All the examination procedures are automated. College has been continuously carrying out examination reforms by means of improving examination procedures through integration of Information Technology (IT), Continuous Internal Assessments (CIA) and End Semester Examinations (ESE).

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Programme Outcomes and Course Outcomes for all Programmes offered by the institution are stated and displayed on the website and communicated to teachers and students

Each Programme has specific objectives and over-all design of the course ensures a certain set of skills and competence that the students graduating from the institution should gain at the end of the program. OBE (Outcome-Based Education) is a student centric model through which attain the stated objectives and goals (outcomes). Programme Outcomes (POs): POs are broad statements that incorporate the knowledge, skills and behaviour that the students acquire through a wide range of courses. POs are concerned with the general aspect of graduation for a particular program and the competency and proficiency a graduate will acquire after completion of the program. Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs): PSOs are statements that portray what the graduates of a specific program should be capable to perform. PSOs are developed based on the suggestions of subject experts, alumni, faculty members, industrialists and other stakeholders. Course outcomes (COs): COs point out students' capacity to express in terms of knowledge, skills and values upon completion of a course. COs are more oriented towards subjects. College has clearly framed the learning outcomes of all programs and courses. For that, the IQAC conducted a series of meetings to frame POs, PSOs and COs and soft copies are uploaded on the college website for staff, students and stakeholders' reference. In addition, copies are distributed to faculty members. Students are also communicated the same through the tutorial ward meeting. Programme outcome of UG and PG Programmes are given in the college calendar for wider circulation.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme Outcomes and Course Outcomes as evaluated by the institution

Course outcomes are measured in terms of performances of the students in the Internal (25 Marks) and End Semester Examinations (75 Marks). The following tools are used for calculating CIA marks secured: Assignments (3 Numbers for 20%); Tests (2 Numbers for 60%); Seminar (one for 10%) and Attendance (10% based on attending %).

At the end of each semester, ESEs (End Semester Examinations) are conducted and is declared as PASS in a course. The students should secure a minimum of 40% in UG and 50% in PG inclusive of external and internal assessment. Well framed course outcomes are assessed based on CIA-1, CIA-2, Assignment-I, Assignment-II, Assignment-III, Seminar, Attendance and Marks secured in End Semester Examinations. The 100% of marks are distributed across all the five units for each COs and each mode of assessment is assigned with weightage value. Weightage of Course Outcomes is calculated by using the following formula:

Percentage of COs X Marks X Weightage of COs

The weighted average marks of each COs is calculated by way of fixing threshold range and the analysis is made to know the number of COs attained the desired outcome. The attainment levels are fixed (L1, L2, L3, and L4) based on criteria range (≥ 60 , ≥ 50 to < 60 , ≥ 40 to < 50 and < 40) Course codes are mapped with POs to ascertain the number of COs which are attained the framed POs. PSOs are mapped with POs to get the overall average results and to know their attainment level of PSOs.

RESEARCH, INNOVATIONS AND EXTENSION

3.1 - Promotion of Research and Facilities

3.1.1 - The institution's research facilities are frequently updated and there is a well-defined policy for promotion of research which is uploaded on the institutional website and implemented

Research induces the creativity which is part of the academic activity at higher education in improving the quality of education. College promotes research through: Research and Development Cell (R&D cell): Creates conducive environment for research and take initiatives that promote research aptitude among Faculty members, Research Scholars and PG Students. R&D

Cell organizes different research activities and associates with Departments for uplifting innovative research programme. Motivating faculty members to publish their research work in National and International impact factor Journals and present in Conference and Seminar by providing technical. Encouraging and Guiding the Faculty Members to apply external funding to undertake research projects, and organize Seminar /Conference/Workshops/Lecture series, etc. to create awareness and develop the environment and atmosphere, opportunities and facilities for interaction and discussion. For motivating, teachers are awarded in the Teacher's Day for their meritorious contributions, i.e., paper published in International peer reviewed Journal with Clarivate impact factor (above 2.0 for Science faculties above 0.5 for Social Science), Book published with ISBN Number, Obtained external funding for research and associate activities and Faculties who crossed the citation index of more than 250 in Google Scholar. Mandatory public pre-submission presentation of dissertation is adopted to enhance the quality of the research work by all PG students and M.Phil. Scholars. Inviting international and national experts and alumni lectures for promoting research. Signing MOUs are made for enhancing the research potential, collaborative activities, exchanging the expertise, training the students, etc.

3.3 - Innovation Ecosystem

3.3.1 - Institution has created an ecosystem for innovations and creation and transfer of knowledge supported by dedicated centres for research, entrepreneurship, community orientation, incubation, etc.

College promotes innovation, creation and transfer of knowledge by adopting different means including R&D Cell and Entrepreneurship Cell for promoting research and entrepreneurial innovations. Departments have different forums/clubs/associations who organize innovative programmes to nurture talents. Department encourages students to attend various kinds of events and faculties accompany them to perform well. Department: Computer Science conducts different software/hardware competitions and publishes GLOBUS magazine through Swift; Visual Communication organizes Photo-exhibition on International Photography day; English organizes Drama Competition, Literature EXPO and publishes PEKAK PLUMES. Physics organizes Science Day celebrations; Zoology trains the students in vermiculture, apiculture and aquaculture and persuades students to develop entrepreneurial activities and creates awareness through Wildlife Week Celebrations; Botany trains students in mushroom culture and also persuades the agriculture based students to have organic farming; Monoculture plantation of teak and indigenous plants in the 'Mayil Vanam' are used for knowledge transfer. College assigns photo/video works of the college function and preparation of ID cards to students of Visual Communication. After completion of the course some of them started their own studio, printing, and live telecasting business. More than three decades magazine "ILANTHUTHU" has been brought by the students independently with minor support of the college, producing several writers, poets, cine field persons. NSS, NCC, and PEKAK make several knowledge transfers and several government schemes to community. Weekly Enthusiastic Students Webinar series brings out the oratorical talents of students who received awards for their best performances.

3.6 - Extension Activities

3.6.1 - Extension activities carried out in the neighbourhood sensitising students to social issues for their holistic development, and the impact thereof during the year

College has been translating its social commitment through its outreach for People's Development since 5th July 1955. It is a programmed outreach activity for two-way transfer of knowledge between the students and the people of rural communities. Basic premise of this outreach programme is to realise the 'Kattranai thoorum arivu' exercise by which students impart their knowledge and skills for the empowerment of the rural community as a solemn duty of 'paying back to the community'. Extension activities are carried out by various service organizations viz., NSS/NCC/YRC/RRC/Leo club/Rotaract Club/Junior Jaycee and Student EXNORA. All students of our college have the opportunity to be part of any one of the service organizations and get sensitized for recent social issues. Through the extension activities, student volunteers addressed the social issues and thereby make positive impacts on socio, economic and environmental developments of the neighborhood community which creates holistic development. Extension activities are carried out by the enrolled students of respective service organizations with the guidance and support of faculty coordinators.

'PEKAK' the unique campus diversity programme cum village adoption programme provides the opportunity to the young students to involve themselves in service to the society especially in villages. All the first year UG students irrespective of their participation in other service organisations have to take up service activities under the guidance of teaching staff and a village coordinator. Several activities are undertaken in the academic year.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of an effective leadership in tune with the vision and mission of the Institution

VISION As a citadel of higher learning offering quality education to downtrodden people.

MISSION Orienting education to uplift rural youth, Empowering women by enhancing their literacy and employability. Providing opportunities to acquire strong theoretical and practical knowledge to instill a high level of confidence and leadership traits among the students. Inculcating human values, rights, ethics and gender-equity to the learners to perceive responsibilities towards society and nation. Promoting research culture for the sustainable development of the country. Developing a sense of creativity and innovation in all the academic endeavours. Motivating entrepreneurship traits and skills and providing the learners a platform for exploration and enhancement of lifelong learning.

Governance

The prime objective is to produce morally dedicated students by having socially responsible teachers and has a set of well designed guiding philosophy to yield the desired outcomes in students and ultimately in society. Principles are effectively implemented at all levels of management by various decision making bodies viz., Managing Committee, Governing Body, Academic Council, College Council, Board of Studies, Finance Committee, Statutory bodies, etc. that address the academic and non academic issues. Collective participation of all stakeholders is achieved through decentralization of administrative and curricular designing processes. College ensures transparency and accountability.

6.1.2 - Effective leadership is reflected in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management

Participative management: College promotes at different levels viz., strategic level, functional level and operational level.
Strategic level: Governing body, Administrator, Principal,

Staff Council, IQAC and R&D Cell define policies and procedures, framing guidelines/rules/regulations for academic and administration.

Functional level: Faculty members share knowledge among themselves, students and staff members while working for achieving the tasks and goals. Principal, HoD, Faculty members, Student secretary, Association Office bearers and representatives participate in different roles to yield the fruitful outcome. Operational level: Principal interacts with government/external agencies/faculty members/concerned sections of Parent University. Students and nonteaching staff members join hands with the Principal and faculty for the execution of different academic, administrative, extension related, co and extracurricular activities.

Power Decentralization: Several service organizations are involved to carry out extension activities viz., NSS/NCC/PEKAK/YRC/RRC/EXNORA Internal Complaints Committee/ Consumer Club/Leo Club/Junior Jaycees/Rotaract, etc., Staff members act as coordinators/ advisors and students serve as leaders and volunteers. To carry out the extension work, the college has collaborations with Local bodies/Police department/District administrations/ NGOs/Local administrations/Religious bodies/Government hospital/108 Ambulance service/ Rural community/Public Health Departments/Alumni members/Forest department/Temple administrations for providing the community services to needy people. Decentralization of the power increases the responsibilities and provides opportunity to achieve the task successfully and also prevents the delays.

6.2 - Strategy Development and Deployment

6.2.1 - The institutional Strategic/ Perspective plan has been clearly articulated and implemented

The CPE fund and autonomous grant were effectively used to enhance the IT part of the institution. The enhancement in the Wifi provided an excellent opportunity to conduct online classes during CORONA lockdown period and students learnt as good as offline pedagogy. Whole campus Wifi strength is excelled to provide ICT to all end-users which allow them to access the internet unlimitedly for gathering information. The online pedagogy enhances the conduction of meetings, discussions, presentations, etc., and weekly webinar "Enthusiastic student: Knowledge Resource" series continuously. Further, different departments make use of the online tools for conducting value added courses such as Microbial Food Technology, Fire And Electrical safety, Tally ERP.9 additional classes, etc., The development of e-governance effectively integrated and avail the softwares for administration and research. The college participates continuously in the NIRF and retaining the rank band of 101-150. The single window system with common admission counseling increased to choose multiple courses in an application, effectiveness of students admission and transparency. Although the college was used as COVID isolation treatment ward, the SSR was submitted and peer team visit was conducted successfully due to these IT enhancement and dedicated IQAC team members and NAAC steering committee members.

6.2.2 - The functioning of the various institutional bodies is effective and efficient as visible from the policies, administrative set-up, appointment and service rules, procedures, etc.

Governing Body is the apex statutory decision making body and meets to deliberate on the activities and approves the minutes viz., Academic Council minutes, Finance committee proposals, new initiatives, academic performances of the students and provides specific instructions for improvement. College Council/Academic Council/Finance Committee and IQAC offer advice to the Principal on pertinent matters. It is the practice of the institution to delegate the decision making powers to various levels in the organizational hierarchy to foster decentralization. IQAC.

Coordinators shoulder the administrative responsibilities. HoDs play pivotal role in the bottom level department management. Faculties deal with students and are responsible for implementation of the decisions made at different levels. Office wing reports administrative matters directly to the authorities which facilitate a hassle free, two way communication and grievance handling mechanism necessary for effective functioning. Employees are governed by the Private College Regulation Act 1972 and the byelaws of the college. Different committees for Co-curricular/Extra Curricular activities identify the talents and motivate students to achieve greatest goals. Physical directors are given full freedom to bring outstanding sports persons and achievers. Fine-arts and other organizations groom the students to bring out their talents. Academic related committees find avenues for the students to shine and achieve outstanding performances in various competitions.
